

SPEAKERS

Ekaterina EVDOKIMOVA

Managing partner at SEZ Stupino Quadrat

Ekaterina Evdokimova is the co-founder and managing partner at Stupino Quadrat, Russia's first private special economic zone. An acclaimed lawyer in several jurisdictions (Attorney-at-Law (DE), Lawyer (RU), LL.M. (UC Berkeley, USA), Ekaterina is passionate about building bridges between Russian and international organizations.

In 2015, Ms Evdokimova co-founded Russia's first of its kind industrial real-estate development with complete technical and social infrastructure in place as well as tax and customs benefits that reduce risk for the investors and shorten the project realization period. It has become known as a unique space for likeminded people under a strong vision "Making investments happen by making investors happy".