

Christopher Weafer, Chief Executive Officer, Macro-Advisory Ltd

Christopher Weafer has worked in the Russia-Eurasia region for twenty-three years and his experience in Emerging Markets covers almost forty-five years. He has regularly been voted the best market analyst in Russia and the Eurasia region in surveys carried out by Thomson Reuters and Institutional Investor.

Christopher is the founding partner of Macro-Advisory (MA) Limited, the leading independent Russia-Eurasia focused strategic advisory firm, which was set up in late 2013. Prior to this, he was the Chief Strategist for Sberbank, the largest financial organisation in Russia and Eastern Europe. From 2007 to early 2011, he had a similar role with Uralisb Financial Corporation and, between 2002 and 2007, he was the Chief Market Strategist for Alfa bank, Russia's leading independent financial group. His first role in Moscow was as head of research for Troika Dialog, an independent investment bank that was subsequently taken over by Sberbank. He held this role from early 1998 to mid-2002.

Prior to coming to Moscow, Christopher was based in Bangkok where he worked for NatWest/Bankers Trust covering investment strategy for the South East Asia region. From 1990 to late 1996, Christopher worked with the Abu Dhabi Investment Authority, based in Abu Dhabi City. ADIA is one of the world's largest sovereign wealth funds and he held the position of Senior Investment Manager. Christopher is the Eurasia ambassador for the Beijing based Mencius Foundation.
